

Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Teaching Sector - PTLLS

The course will be delivered over 4 days in Leeds.

The dates are

Saturday 21st April, Friday 11th and 25th May and Saturday 16th June

The venue will be Healthy Living Network Leeds
Unit 4, Armley Park Court, Stanningley Road, Leeds, LS12 2AE

The Cost £300 per person

This course covers the following aspects of tutor training:

- planning a teaching session and a scheme of work
- the role of the tutor
- the training cycle
- meeting individual learner needs
- teaching and learning methods
- assessment methods
- evaluation strategies

This is a professional teaching qualification and the course requires your active participation and the completion of coursework assignments. Assignments are set by City and Guilds and comprise a theory assignments and a practical assignment. Assessment includes delivering a 20-minute teaching session to the rest of the group. You will need to be able to express yourself effectively both orally and in writing.

This nationally recognised City and Guilds qualification is suitable for anyone who is currently working in a training, tutoring or assessing role.

This is the first stage of the new teaching qualification for those working in FE, Adult Education, Community Education and Work Based Learning. It is increasingly being required for trainers delivering all forms of government funded learning. It is the 'threshold qualification' for all new tutors; until PTLLS is achieved new tutors must have their teaching supervised. This is the first stage to obtaining Qualified Teacher Status in line with LLUK requirements.

For more information or to book a place contact
Holistic Partnership on 07745764789
or email admin@holistic-partnership.co.uk